

EcoTours for Cures

March 23rd – 29th

Ethnobotanical, cultural, and natural excursions into the heart of Jamaica

Experience the island of Jamaica untouched by tourism. Rekindle your natural connections to the land, plants, breeze, soil, and sand. Find your calling. Your rhythm. Your breath. Your senses. Your intuition. Your full joy. Connect with the land and connect with yourself.

Led by Dr. Eugene Zampieron, Dr. Lindsay Chimileski and Kibret with one of a kind local guides — Lion, John Boops, Bintu, Natty Grant, Kemar, and Prince Francis.

- Explore pristine trails along the Caribbean
- Discover majestic waterfalls unknown to the tourist traps
- Travel with Rastafarian Bush doctors and maroon guides and melt into the pulse of their simple lifestyle
- Experience moonlit fire ceremonies and cookouts on the beach
- Hike deep into tropical rainforests
- Drink traditional teas prepared by expert naturopaths, ethnobotanists and herbalists
- Enjoy the foods of Jamaica, cooked to perfection by our chef Bintu
- Workshops on Caribbean botany, medicinal herbs and foods – taught by professors of botanical and herbal medicine with decades of experience

Join us March 23rd – 29th, 2024. Limited spots are available for this exciting trip!
Comfortable cottage accommodations and economical camping options available.

Continuing medical education credit pending, may be tax deductible for healthcare professionals!

 www.ecotoursforcures.com  (203) 263-2970

 facebook.com/ecotoursforcuresjamaica  @ecotoursforcures